

Around the Corner Food & Fun Living Mural Experience

Guidelines and Acknowledgements

Please observe the following guidelines while adding to our Living Mural.

No profanity or hate speech.

No terrorist or gang symbols.

No nudity - no penises.

Paint only in the designated fence areas.

Do not paint our speakers, lighting, tables, chairs, or planters.

Do not paint yourself or others.

Please note these terms are subject to change without warning.

By purchasing this experience at Around the Corner Foods (ATC), my party and I acknowledge the following:

ATC is not responsible for any damages to ones self, clothing, accessories, etc. Meaning that we are not responsible for paint getting on any of your person, including your skin, eyes, or mouth.

Artwork may be painted over at any time.

Failing to abide by our guidelines, may result in your work being painted over.

You understand that should you be found violating any of the guidelines, you will be asked to cease painting and return all painting items. Should this occur, no refunds will be issued.

We do have paint thinner available if needed for cleaning, however, please note that spray paint is oil based and is typically challenging to remove from skin, fabric, and other objects.

Accidents do happen, if an accident with paint occurs and an area is painted that should not have been, please notify us so we can be aware and make necessary arrangements.
